

CHRONOLOGY

Small Chronological compendium of Indian and Tibetan Buddhist Masters

*Compiled by Konchog Tendzin (M. Ricard)
Shechen Monastery, Nepal*

This document contains the dates of some 1300 spiritual masters and scholars of the Tibetan Buddhist tradition, together with a small number of dates of masters from India and other cultures. I gathered these data through reading texts over the years for my own use. This compilation is by no means a systematic work of research, but since it might be useful to others, I am glad to make it available to anyone who might be interested. Any addition or corrections are welcomed!

Ce document contient les dates d'un peu plus de 1300 maîtres spirituels et grands érudits du bouddhisme tibétain avec un petit nombre de dates de maître de l'Inde et de penseurs d'autres pays. J'ai rassemblé ces données historiques au fil de mes lectures sans autre but que de constituer un compendium chronologique facilement consultable. Bien qu'il ne s'agisse nullement d'une recherche systématique, cette compilation peut s'avérer utile à d'autres et je suis donc heureux de la mettre à disposition de ceux qui cela peut intéresser. Toutes les corrections et additions sont bienvenues!

The sons' lineage ended with the 8th Mindrolling Trichen- Tri Gyurme Dechen Chogdrub. During the time of Tri Gyurme Dechen Chogdrub, there were only daughters and no sons to carry on the family lineage. It was then that the daughter of Tri Gyurme Dechen Chogdrub, Mindrolling Jetsün Chimed Donden Dolma, married the son of the great treasure master-Tertön Rangrig who was an emanation of Terdag Lingpa. His son, Pema Wangchen, married into the family of Mindrolling and became the Tritsab or regent. In this way of enumerating the Trichens of Mindrolling, Tri Pema Wangchen is counted as the 9th Mindrolling Trichen. The son from his marriage to Jetsün Chimed Donden Dolma became the 10th Trichen, Tri Dondub Wangyal who was the father of His Holiness Kyabje Mindrolling Trichen, our root Guru.
